LA VUELTA 2017: PROVISIONAL START LIST

© Unipublic

The 72nd edition of La Vuelta will, once again, feature today's biggest cycling stars in its peloton. 198 riders, divided into 22 teams, that will take off from the starting line on the 19th of August in Nîmes and fight for La Roja, the leader's red jersey that will crown the winner of the race's general classification.

Now that the pre-registration process is over, the organisation is pleased to announce that, although we are still waiting for confirmation on the final line-ups, these are the riders who have pre-registered to participate in La Vuelta 2017.

The recent Tour de France winner, and four-time champion of the French race, Chris Froome; the runner-up of the Grande Boucle, Romain Bardet; the pistolero from Pinto, Alberto Contador; the Orica-Scott trident made up of the Yates brothers and the Columbian scarab, Esteban Chaves; the Italians Fabio Aru and Vincenzo Nibali, who already know what it is to win La Vuelta, the recent King of the Mountain in the Tour, Warren Barguil and a list of outsiders such as Rafal Majka, Ilnur Zakarin, Andrew Talansky, George Bennett, Louis Meintjes and Julian Alaphilippe.
